Fire at Newport News.

Newport News, February 21, 1888. An alarm of fire was sounded about 2 o'clock this morning, the frame building on the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-eighth street, owned by Mrs. Weaver and occupied as a store and tin-shop, having been found to be in flames. So much headway had been gained by the fire ere it was discovered that it was impossible to subdue it. The building and nearly all the stock and some two or three other houses were totally destroyed. Nothing is known as Murray, held on suspicion of complicity in the robbery of Chapman & Gale's jew-elry store, were brought before Police-
